MIDGET CHAMPIONSHIPS FEATURE THREE CLOSE MATCHUPS

The Orillia Kings took on the Oshawa Blue Knights for the Midget B title. Ben Trumble opened the scoring for Orillia, but by the end of the first period the score was even at 2-2. Oshawa pulled ahead 4-2 early in the second, but Orillia would score to make it 4-3 at the second break. There was no looking back for Oshawa as they added another two goals in the third period for a 6-3 final. Jayden O'Connor scored twice, including the game-clinching goal for Oshawa's Midget B victory.

The Midget C championship featured the Huntsville Hawks and the Arthur Aces. Arthur would jump out to an early lead in this one with a pair of goals scored by Jabe Verbeek. After entering the second period down 2-0, Huntsville would score three unanswered goals to take a 3-2 lead into the second intermission. Keese Zugehoer would score the eventual game winner, early in the third frame, as Huntsville went on to win 5-3 and take the Midget C title.

The Simcoe Timberwolves faced off with the Innisfil Wolfpack for the Midget D Championship. This high-scoring final was back and forth right to the buzzer. Innisfil jumped out to a 4-2 lead after the first frame, backed by a pair of goals from Braedan Lockyer-Fagan. Simcoe would then strike back with a five goal second period, to take a 7-6 lead into the final frame. The game was tied 8-8 heading into the final minute of play when Dylan Palomaki scored his fourth goal of the game with just 42 seconds remaining. Innisfil would close out the 9-8 victory to take the Midget D Championship.
