Cambridge take Intermediate A Crown

The Intermediate A Championship saw the Cambridge Chiefs do battle with Six Nations. Cambridge opened the scoring early and took a 2-0 lead into the first intermission of the game. The Chiefs would score again early in the second period, and the teams would trade goals late in the frame for a 4-1 score heading into the third. Six Nations was able to shut down Cambridge in the third and score two goals of their own, but it wouldn't be enough as Cambridge won the final 4-3.

The Niagara Thunderhawks faced off with Six Nations 2 for the Intermediate B Championship. Six Nations opened the scoring midway through the first period, but Niagara would counter less than one minute later to tie the game heading into the first intermission. Only one player would score the rest of the way, as Kevin Henhawk scored second and third period goals to lead Six Nations to a Championship win.

The Intermediate C Championship featured the Midland Braves and the Peterborough Lakers. Peterborough would strike first but Midland answered quickly to tie the game 1-1 heading into the first intermission. This was as close as the matchup would be, as The Lakers would pull away with three unanswered goals in the second period. Peterborough would add one more in the third to win the final 5-1 with goals from five different scorers.
